Varignana Tour

Description of the route with sites of interest

1. Parish church of S. Maria and S. Lorenzo A church with three naves, it encloses a fresco dating back to the XV century, and a Romanesque crypt under the church, dating back to the eighth century.
Leaving the Gate of Ca Venturoli, turn left, at the crossroad keep the right towards Varignana historical centre.
2. Tower House The Tower is a testimony of the ancient medieval Varignana.
Exit Varignana following Via Ca Masino, then turn left on a short stretch of unpaved road; walk past the entrance of the Resort to reach the tower house and then rejoin the main street.
3. Ca' Masino
Stay on Via Ca' Masino.
4. The Uphill
Climb to the left towards the Church of Santa Maria.
Church of Santa Maria (The Chapel) Currently under renovation, the park offers a glimpse of the Resort and of the area that will host the golf courses.
It may be reached along the route, continuing on Cà Masino.
5. Rio Rosso
Walk past 'The Chapel' following the unpaved road northbound; after passing some rural settlements, continue on this road descending to the Fosso (moat) of Rio Rosso.
6. Ca' Venturoli Ponds
Leave the road immediately before the Fosso di 'Rio Rosso' and turn right into an unpaved road that will lead you to the lowest point of the route. Once you have reached the ponds, turn left and continue uphill, to the entrance of the Resort.
